

American College of Medical Toxicology

The American College of Medical Toxicology (ACMT) and the Society for Public Health Education (SOPHE), through a cooperative agreement with the Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry (ATSDR), will be presenting a full day educational seminar in Washington DC on May 1, 2007 entitled, "The Environmental Health Consequences of Clandestine Methamphetamine Laboratories". Mark your calendar and make plans to attend, today!

DATE: May 1, 2007
8:30 AM – 5:00 PM

LOCATION: EPA Conference Center
Potomac Yard One
2777 Crystal Drive
Arlington, VA 22202

COST AND REGISTRATION

The Methamphetamine Educational Seminar is free. Official course registration will begin in March 2007. Register online at <http://trainex.org/offeringslist.cfm?courseid=538>

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Contact Dr. Brent W Morgan or Dr. Robert J. Geller

Phone: 404.616.4403

email: bmorg02@emory.edu or Robert_geller@oz.ped.emory.edu

AGENDA TOPICS

- Methamphetamine Use and Abuse
- Law Enforcement and Public Safety
- Legal Issues and Public Policy
- Methamphetamine Awareness
- Synthesis Hazards
- Cleanup and Remediation
- Personal and Environmental Protection
- Monitoring
- Evaluations