ALONG WITH CO-HOSTS

THE U.S. ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY (EPA) AND
THE AGENCY FOR TOXIC SUBSTANCES AND DISEASE REGISTRY (ATSDR)

INVITE YOU TO:

“The Public Health, Environmental and Enforcement Consequences of Pesticide Misuse”

Date: Wednesday, August 8, 2007

Time: 8 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Place: Universidad Metropolitana (UMET Teatro Arturo Morales Carrión)

Address: Avenida Ana G. Méndez

Carretera 176, Km 0.3

Cupey, PR 00928

UMET Telephone: (787) 766-1717

This one day conference will provide the participant with information on the regulations, environmental impact, enforcement issues, toxicology, health effects, and community impact from pesticide spills and misapplication. Case studies from Puerto Rico will be presented to illustrate these topics. An afternoon break-out session will enable the participant to gain more expertise in either medical/public health issues or environmental response and enforcement.

To Register: <http://www.trainex.org>

There is no cost to participate in this conference. Parking is available at the University for a fee of one dollar plus tax. Food establishments are located within walking distance.
